DEDICATION

FOR MANY YEARS MAN HAS SET HIS EMOTIONS TO MUSIC IN THE FORM OF SONGS. SOME OF THESE MELODIES HAVE ENDURED THE COUNTLESS AGES AND ARE ALWAYS WELCOME. SOME HAVE BEEN HANDED DOWN FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION IN THE FORM OF FOLK SONGS. AND THEN THERE ARE THOSE "HERE TODAY, GONE TOMORROW" SONGS. IT IS TO THESE THE POPULAR TUNES THAT THIS 1954 LENS SALUTES. ALL OVER THE NATION WE FIND THOSE TOP TEN TUNES. THESE ARE THE MELODIES THAT YOU HEAR ON THE AIR EVERYWHERE, THE TUNES THAT YOU FIND YOURSELF HUMMING OR SINGING WITHOUT REALIZING IT.

MOST OF THESE SONGS LAST ONLY A SHORT TIME AND THEN SOME OTHER NUMBER RISES TO TAKE THEIR PLACE. SOME ARE REVIVED AFTER A PERIOD OF YEARS, ALTHOUGH MOST OF THEM NEVER COME BACK. BUT THESE SONGS, WHILE THEY DO LIVE, SET THE ENTIRE COUNTRY ON ITS EAR, YOUNG AND OLD ALIKE.

BETWEEN THE COVERS OF THIS LENS ARE TO BE FOUND SOME OF THE POPULAR TUNES DURING THE LAST FOUR YEARS, THE FOUR YEARS THAT REPRESENT THE SENIORS' HIGH SCHOOL MEMORIES. AND SO THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO THE HIT PARADE, USA.

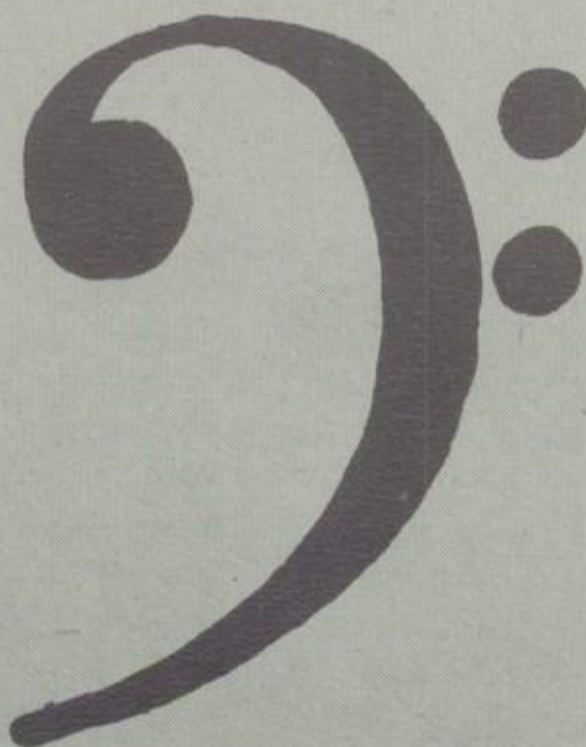

FOREWORD

What is a yearbook supposed to represent? Ask yourself this question. Then, after you have looked through your '54 Lens try to answer it. If this book fulfills your requirements of a good annual then we, the '54 Lens Staff, will consider our efforts a success. Each student has certain things he likes included in his Lens and we have tried to make this a book to satisfy the "majority".

For one quality we have tried to include an individual picture of every student in Washington. We have recorded the most important events, activities, and organizations that make your school as great as it is. We hope that you will consider your new Lens something more than just a book. May it represent cherished memories of a year you will long remember, a year that through these pages you might relive during the many years to come.

MR. SMITH

The Principal of Colonials _____

As each school year approaches its inevitable end, the moment arrives when old ties are broken and for our graduates new experiences begin. A new experience also begins for an in-coming group of students. One class must leave to make way for another. Each of you has left something of yourself in the school--perhaps your name on a trophy, maybe a piece of furniture or in the memory of a teacher.

You take with you a little education and a lot of memories of the happiest, most carefree days of your life. Those of us who remain hereafter you, wish you well.

Stephen E. Smith

Vice-Principals

Each year as our seniors graduate we are apt to think in terms of what we have given them in the way of an education or opportunities for service. Through the Lens we should like to express our appreciation for what our senior class throughout its four years has given to us by cooperation in the classroom, participation in school activities, service to the school and community, youthful enthusiasm.

We shall miss you and wish for each the utmost success in whatever you may undertake.

To you, the graduating class of 1954, my congratulations. The knowledge, friendships, recollections and fond memories of these four years will serve as a strong foundation on which to build a happy and successful life.

Hazel M. Ohmsted

To you, the students, my sincere appreciation for your cooperation and assistance. Our goal is the same--to maintain Washington's fine record as an outstanding high school.

Wm R. Gray, Jr.

SENIOR CLASS COLORS: Red and Gold

We came to Washington with the desire to learn, achieve, and receive. These things would not have been possible without the cooperation of our teachers, counselors, and administrators. The class of '54 has appreciated the honor of upholding the traditions and the rich heritage of Washington High School.

To our advisors, Miss Kohns and Mr. Blake, goes our deepest sense of appreciation. It was their outstanding guidance and interest in our class that made it operate successfully during the past four illustrious years. We also thank our excellent faculty for the patience and effort that we received in order to get the best possible education at Washington High School.

To the students remaining, we wish the best of success and happiness. We have shared many good times and we leave knowing that they will do all they can to carry on the honorable name of Washington High School.

CLASS ADVISERS

MISS KOHNS

MR. BLAKE

These words can be no more than a trite expression of our appreciation of all you've done for us these past four years. You have always been ready to help us in solving any difficulty. Your guidance has assisted us in our development from immature freshmen into capable men and women. Now as we prepare to leave Washington we do not go to forget your guidance but to find our gratefulness to you greater each year of our future experiences.

HONOR AWARDS

ATHLETIC CUP

Given to four outstanding athletes in the four major sports during the past year is the athletic cup. This year the cup will have the following names engraved upon it: PAUL COOK, football; TERRY BLAIR, basketball; TERRY CLIFFORD, baseball; ED WARREN, track.

MUSIC CUP

Receiving the music cup this year for exceptional work in the field of music were: DIANE GEARHART and ART JOHNSON.

SCHOLARSHIP TROPHY

The three graduating seniors of the 1954 senior class who were recipients of the honorable Wilbur K. Hood Trophy were BILL LEE, MARIANNE McDOUGALD, and NAMI MIURA.

JOURNALISM CUP

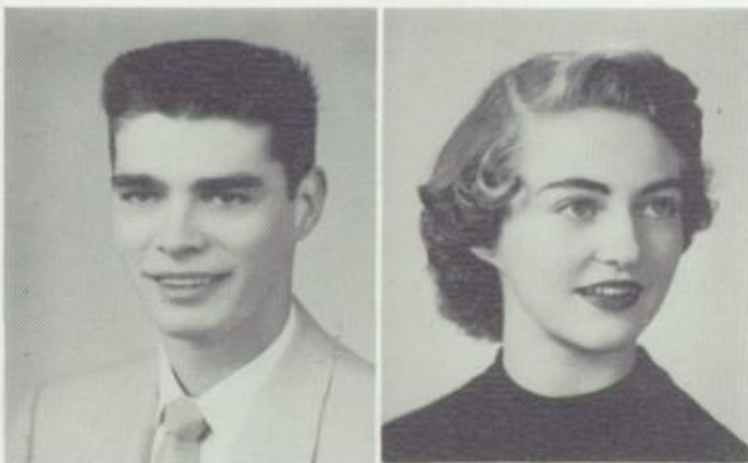

The Journalism cup is yearly awarded to the outstanding student publication field. This year, ERWIN BORING was the recipient of the cup.

DRAMATICS CUP

Upon the death of John Alden, a talented dramatic student, in May of 1942, the senior class of that year presented a dramatic award to the school to be given annually to two members of each graduating class who were outstanding in the field of drama. The member of the 1954 class to receive this award is CONNIE MAXWELL.

ACTIVITY CUP

The highest honor that can be bestowed upon a graduating senior is the activity cup. It symbolizes outstanding qualities of responsibility, scholarship, and leadership in the school curriculum and also in extra-curricular activities. This year, the four seniors who received the outstanding honor were RON BROWN, SANDRA RASMUSSEN, BILL LEE, and DIANE GEARHART.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

WE CAME TO WASHINGTON
THREE YEARS LAST SEPTEMBER,
THOSE YEARS HAVE PASSED
BUT STILL WE REMEMBER.

AND FROM THESE SACRED HALLS
VAST KNOWLEDGE WE'VE GAINED,
OUR FUTURE CALLS--
JUST THE MEM'RIES REMAIN.

MANY JOYS WE HAVE SHARED,
AND MISFORTUNES, TOO
INDEBTED, FOREVER.

NOW THAT IT'S TIME TO PART
WE LEAVE WITH A SIGH.
AND FROM EACH HEART
WE SAY GOOD-BYE.

ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR

During Mr. Maloney's first year at Washington High School he has guided the school clubs through a successful nine months. It is his job to see that all activities of the clubs conform with the school regulations and help to solve any problems therein. He is responsible for the meetings held in our recreation center which must all be scheduled through him. He has gained the confidence and admiration of all those who come in contact with him.

Below: One of Mr. Maloney's many jobs is to answer any questions the students may have about the club program here at Washington.

REC. CENTER

The Washington High School Recreation Center, located in the basement of the Hawthorne Building, is the center of many student activities. It was completed in 1950 and cost approximately $43,000. Club meetings, dances, the annual Daffodil Shows and recreational programs are among those activities conducted here. It is composed of three clubrooms: the Birch, the Pinyon, the Ponderosa, as well as a pantry where refreshments and snacks are served. Mr. Maloney's office and a large dance floor, complete with coke and candy machines, are also included.

GIRLS' LEAGUE ASSEMBLIES

The fall assembly, "Record Round-up", and the spring assembly, "Beauty and the Beast" were both enjoyable entertainment. With an assortment of songs and dances the drama department came through with two great productions.

G.L. President Jan Markstalle crowns Queen Judy I, as S. P. President, Ken Aberle, stands by.

Mary Ellen Clark, Barbara Dunn, Joan Knoph, and Karen Langness "cut up" in the Fall Girls' League Show, "South of the Border" number.

Glen Van Schoiack and James Moore in "Dragonet", part of the Fall Assembly.

BOYS' LEAGUE ASSEMBLIES

Both Boys' League Shows this year were comedies. "Dress Reversal", the fall show, and "A Great Western Melodrama", the spring show, furnished excellent entertainment for the studentbody.

Below is a scene from the Spring Boys' League show, "A Great Western Melodrama".

When the assembly bell rings and a feeling of excitement and enthusiasm dominates the rush of students to the auditorium, you know the one thing that is in store. Pep assemblies throughout the school year have given our teams the credit that they deserve. With the best rally squads in the city we boosted our spirit to an all time high. The student that left the assembly with a sore throat, swollen lungs, or loss of voice is the one who helps to put Washington High School on the map.

Chuck's dreaming of a White Christmas but the girls seem to have other things in mind.

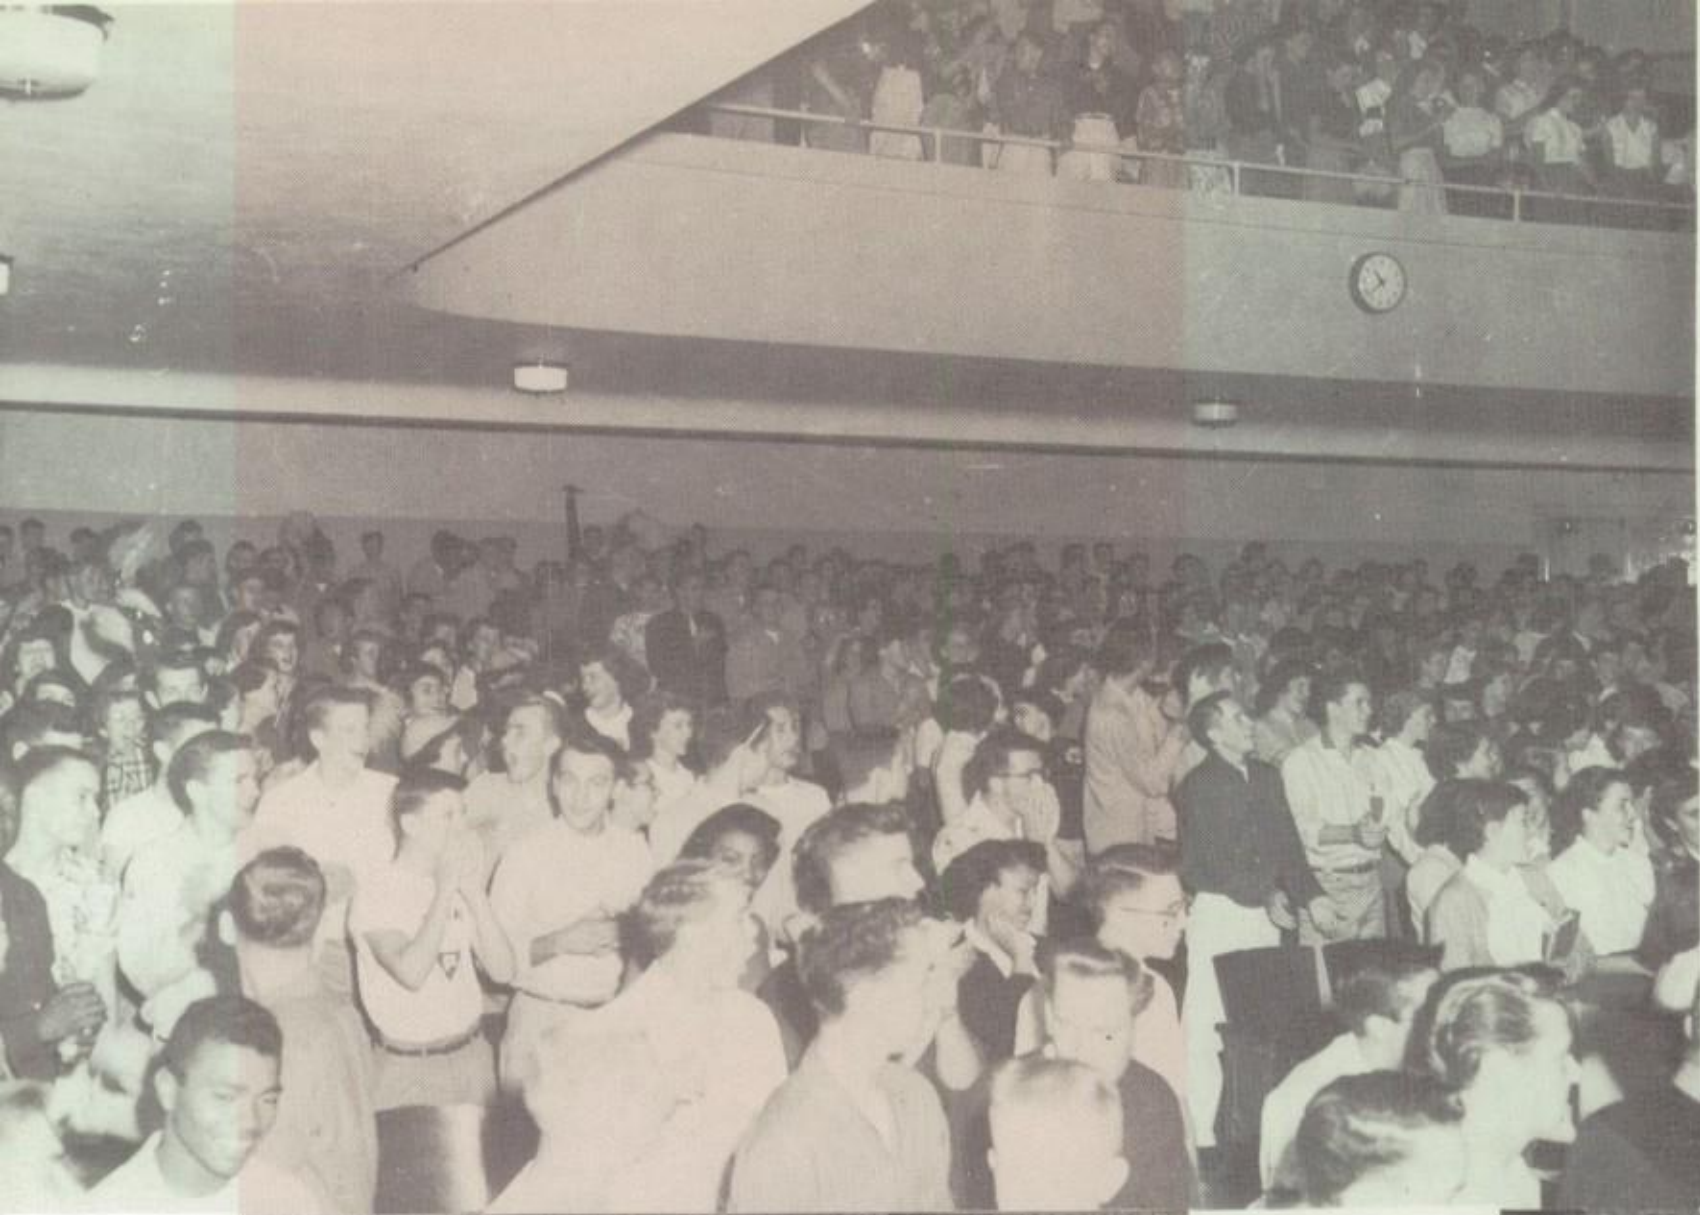

Marching tin soldiers, dancing rag dolls, students dancing to the Skaters' Waltz, ballerinas, popular songs, both comic and serious, highlighted this year's Christmas Program that was a combined effort on the parts of the choir, orchestra, and Drama Departments.

The stage setting was outstanding because of a modern mobile suspended in mid-air over the stage representing the Nativity. The Art Department also constructed and painted an alpine village set to create atmosphere for the variety acts.

Washington High School burst into bloom on the last day of March this year with the Daffodil Show. Sponsored by Girls' League, this show is an annual affair. The fragrant aroma of the flowers greeted all those attending long before they saw the many lovely displays. King Alfred daffodils generously donated by Jan DeGraaf and Mr. DuBosch spread golden carpets as centerpieces in two of the three rooms. Through the cooperation of the student body and the competent guidance of several faculty members the show was a marvelous success.

"The Divine Flora", under the able direction of dramatics instructor Byron Adams, was a terrific success. The annual Senior Class Play is a production long awaited by the student-body as well as many parents, relatives, and friends. With a cast of twenty-six, the three act comedy portrayed the situations that can arise when teen-agers are involved.

The plot revolved around a girl, who, after living with her grandmother for several years, had developed into a genuine wall-flower, in the mildest sense of the word.

She was invited, as a guest, to spend a summer at the beach resort of a family. The son of the family and one of his friends during this time set out to develop her into a "femme fatale". This all being a scheme to land jobs in her father's advertising agency.

Here she met a Texan Crooner and the events that followed were nothing less than hilarious.

A PERFECT TIME

An evening so waited for
An evening set to romance
A wonderful time, a thrill divine
It is the magic of a dance.

In a formal of lacy splendor
Set off with an orchid corsage
A mystic beauty, impish cutie
This creature is not a mirage.

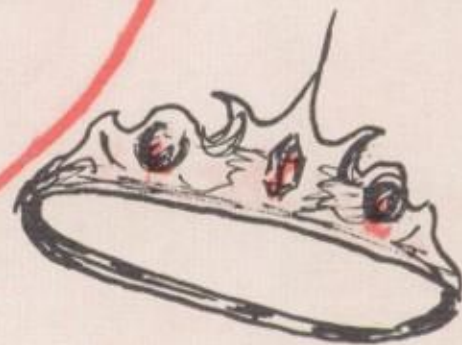

A fragile thing within your arms
A feeling that only love brings
A dream is unfurled, another world
As though you had just sprouted wings.

Why must the hours so speed by
And the parting come all too soon
The velvety sky, the kiss good-bye
By the glow of the fading moon?

Then after the spell is broken
And you turn for a second look
The eve'ning has fled, the night is dead
Just a memory in a book.

LIBRARY

The class of '54 would like to express their thanks to Miss Lancefield for her willing assistance these past four years. We at Washington are blessed with an organized library and an efficient Librarian. This is something to be proud of and to make good use of.

FIRE SQUAD

These students have a terrific responsibility. The efficiency and speed of our fire drills weighs heavily on their shoulders. They certainly deserve the most credit for the success of these drills. With Mary McCloskey and Al Soderstrom as captains these students have performed a highly commendable service.

STAGE CREW

These are the men behind the scenes in our dramatic productions. They have efficiently taken care of the props during our assemblies and operated the noon movies. Under the management of Myron Forsyth these fellows have done a job that cannot be minimized.

SECRETARIES

In the main office these faces are a pleasantly familiar sight. Mrs. Bauman, Mrs. Shirley, and Miss Sykes are always willing to help the students and their cheerful attitude has won them respect and admiration.

BOOK ROOM

For two years now Mrs. Williamson has been in charge of the book room. She is responsible for the circulation of our text books and audio-visual equipment, and she also does a bit of book repairing on the side.

STUDENT BODY STORE

The well beaten path to this counter is familiar to everyone. Under the able supervision of Mr. Parkes and Mrs. Manion this group of students is ready to change your quarter or to outfit you with the necessary term report equipment.

MR. BOGARD

For fifteen years now, Mr. Bogard has directed our band, orchestra, and boys' glee. Under his proficient instruction it has not been unusual for our band and orchestra to make outstanding placement in the annual music festivals. He has given unselfishly of his time and talent to work with us on our dramatic productions and assemblies. Washington's band has always placed highly in the Rose Festival Parade competition. We would like to thank him for the exceptional instrumental department he has helped develop here at Washington.

MR. EDMISTON

The choir, girls' glee, and mixed glee owe the credit for their success to Mr. Edmiston. He has directed our choir with proficiency and originality and has turned out above average results since he came to Washington seven years ago. He has seen our vocal groups through a T. V. appearance, Christmas and Thanksgiving assemblies, and radio programs with measurable success. To him we would

SEASON REVIEW

With only eight lettermen answering the call for early practice sessions, new coach Doug Vickery, former assistant mentor at Lincoln, was faced with that old familiar problem of building a strong, capable squad mainly around junior and sophomore recruits.

Although the Colonials failed to break into the winner's circle the entire season, they could never be accused of not giving their best or "quitting" before the final buzzer. What more can be expected from anyone?

Gone from last year's team were the familiar faces of stalwarts Ken Pierce, Dick Wilson, Ed Davis, and Bill Barnes, all of whom captured positions on the 1952 All-City squad.

With only two weeks of drills behind them, the Colonials invaded McMinnville for their only pre-season test. The final buzzer found Washington on the short end of a 32-0 count.

Opening league action against Frank O'Neil's rugged Roosevelt crew, the locals again found competition overwhelming as they were buried beneath a 47-0 assault.

Jefferson's Hopkin Jenkins field was the scene of Washington's next struggle. The Colonials staged a determined battle before falling to Gill, Hogan, and associates, 32-6.

Paced by Jimmy "Precious" Williams, Benson, the eventual city champion, rolled to an impressive 21-0 decision over the Stark Streeters the following Friday.

Rain was the main feature in Washington's next encounter. The Colonials battled both the elements and Cleveland, losing on both counts, with the score 21-0 besides cleaning bills for muddy uniforms.

In the following contest, the win-starved Colonials fell prey to Lincoln's Cardinals 25-0.

Bill Jackson crashed over to give Grant a narrow 26-19 victory after the two clubs had put up determined struggles for three quarters in the sixth round of league action.

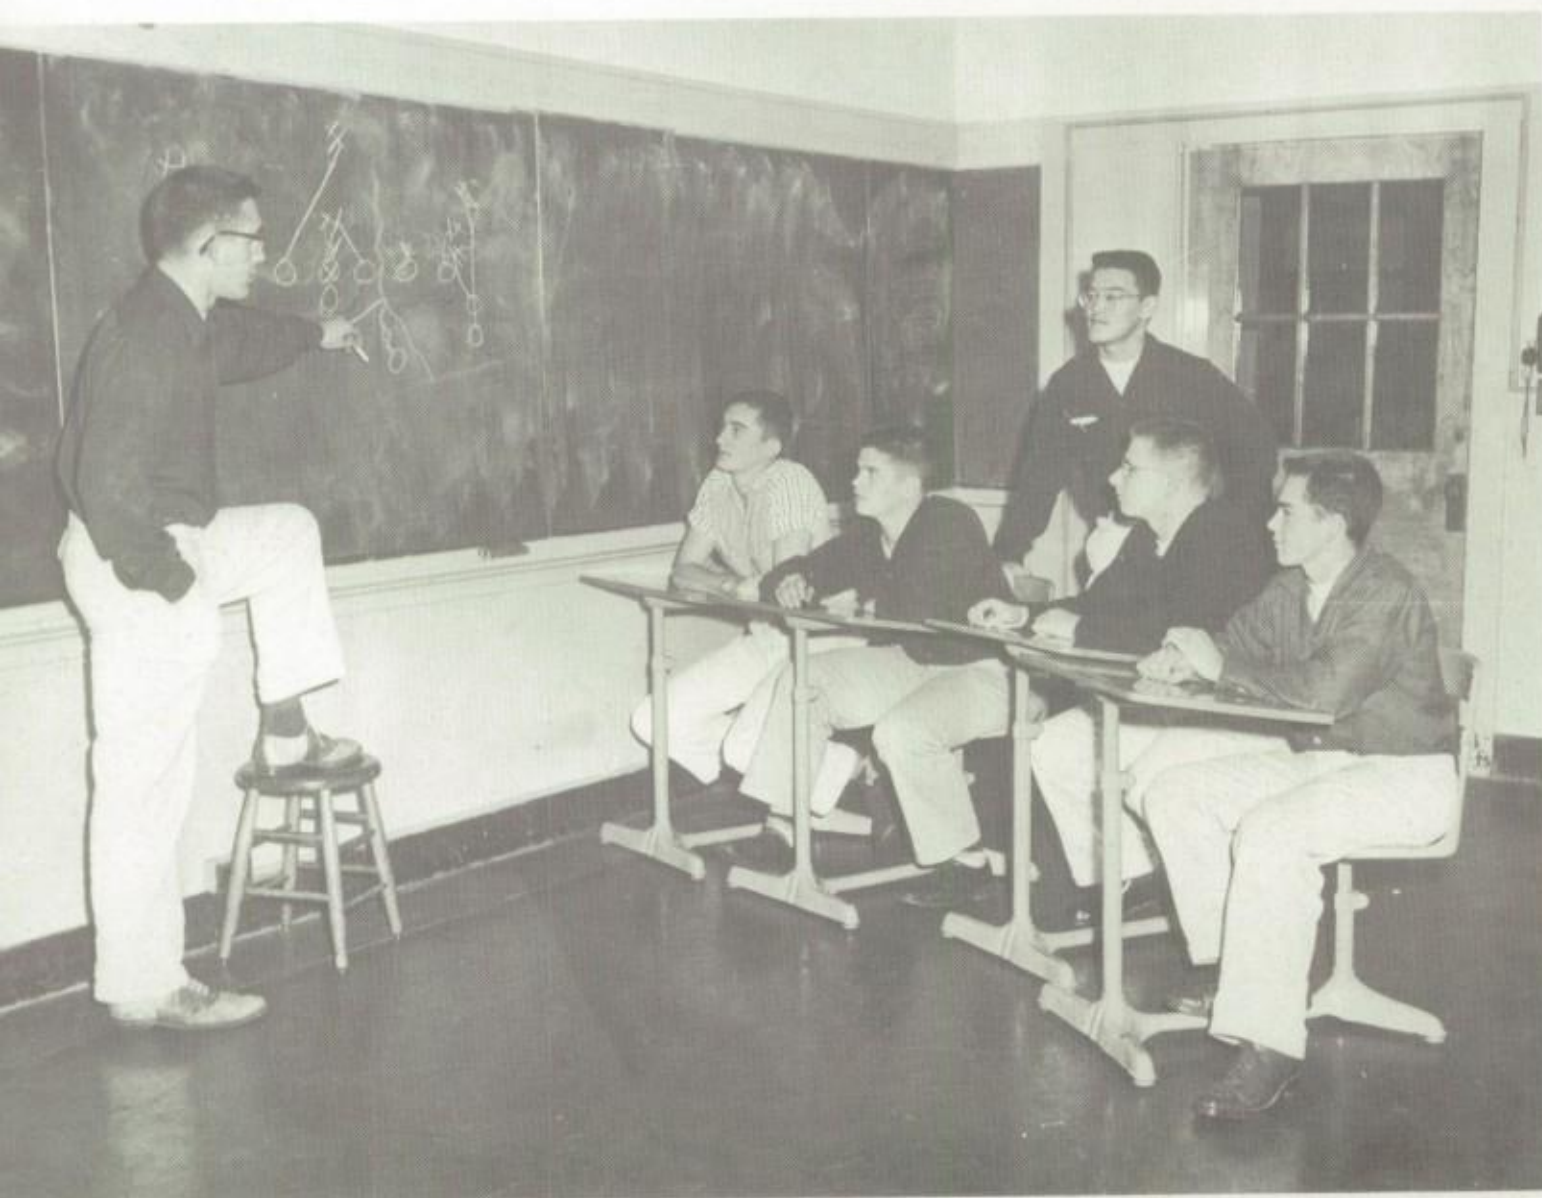

Franklin downed Doug Vickery's charges 14-13 in the tightest contest of the year to wrap up the 1953 season.

Half back John Hall, who missed the early part of the season, but still managed to lead the Colonial scoring parade with three TD's and Joe Key, who sparkled at end and tackle, both offensively and defensively were named to the 1953 All-City team. Both are juniors and will be returning for action next year.

CROSS COUNTRY

After gaining those two all-important essentials, experience and confidence, the members of Washington's junior varsity cross country squad displayed their true colors during the deciding city meet when they literally "ran-off" with the Portland Interscholastic League junior championship. Pictured at right are: First Row: Gary Marchbank, Gary Hockstein. Second Row: Jim Karr, Ross Batey. All were principal factors in the "trophy drive".

Bill McCluskey--Coach

Coach "Mac" McCluskey*

SEASON REVIEW

In basketball as well as in football this year, "building for the future" was the key phrase. Therefore, while the Colonials did not compile an impressive record, on the whole, they gained the experience that will be valuable in coming court campaigns.

Under the able leadership of genial Coach Bill McCluskey, who rounded out his seventh season as Colonial maple mentor, Washington finished with a 4-4 pre-season slate and a 2-12 league record.

Only four members of the 1952-53 team were on hand at the season's outset and of these four only Ray DeFant and Terry Blair played enough to earn their letters last year. Guard Bob "Jorgie" Jorgensen, who was elected captain by his team mates, and guard Paul Cook were the other two returnees.

Besides the previously mentioned four, the local hoopsters were paced by speedster John Hall, number two Maroon and Scorer, (behind Blair) center Joe Key, and forwards John Winters and Cecil Hughey.

But when the time came to pass out laurels we could not forget the devoted service of these following reserves: Eddie Wright, Dick Darby, Al Hatton, and Bill Meany who all had their "moments" and were truly indispensable.

At the climax of the season, Mr. McCluskey beamed happily into his priceless crystal ball and was plainly overjoyed on sighting the reflections of the many squad members who will be returning to toil in Maroon and Gold gear next year.

Warren Bolin--Coach

Although slated to wind up in the depths of the Portland Interscholastic League basement, Warren Bolin's Colonials were fighting it out for the loop's third slot with a 4-3 record at this writing.

Aided a great deal by the effective chucking of the mound staff composed of Joe McCarthy, Tom Richardson, and Warren Jackel, the Colonials have established themselves as "constant threats" in the eyes of league opponents. So far, Terry Clifford, Walt Hilands, Bob Jorgensen, and Jim Hilands have been carrying the "big bats" for the Maroon and Gold squad.

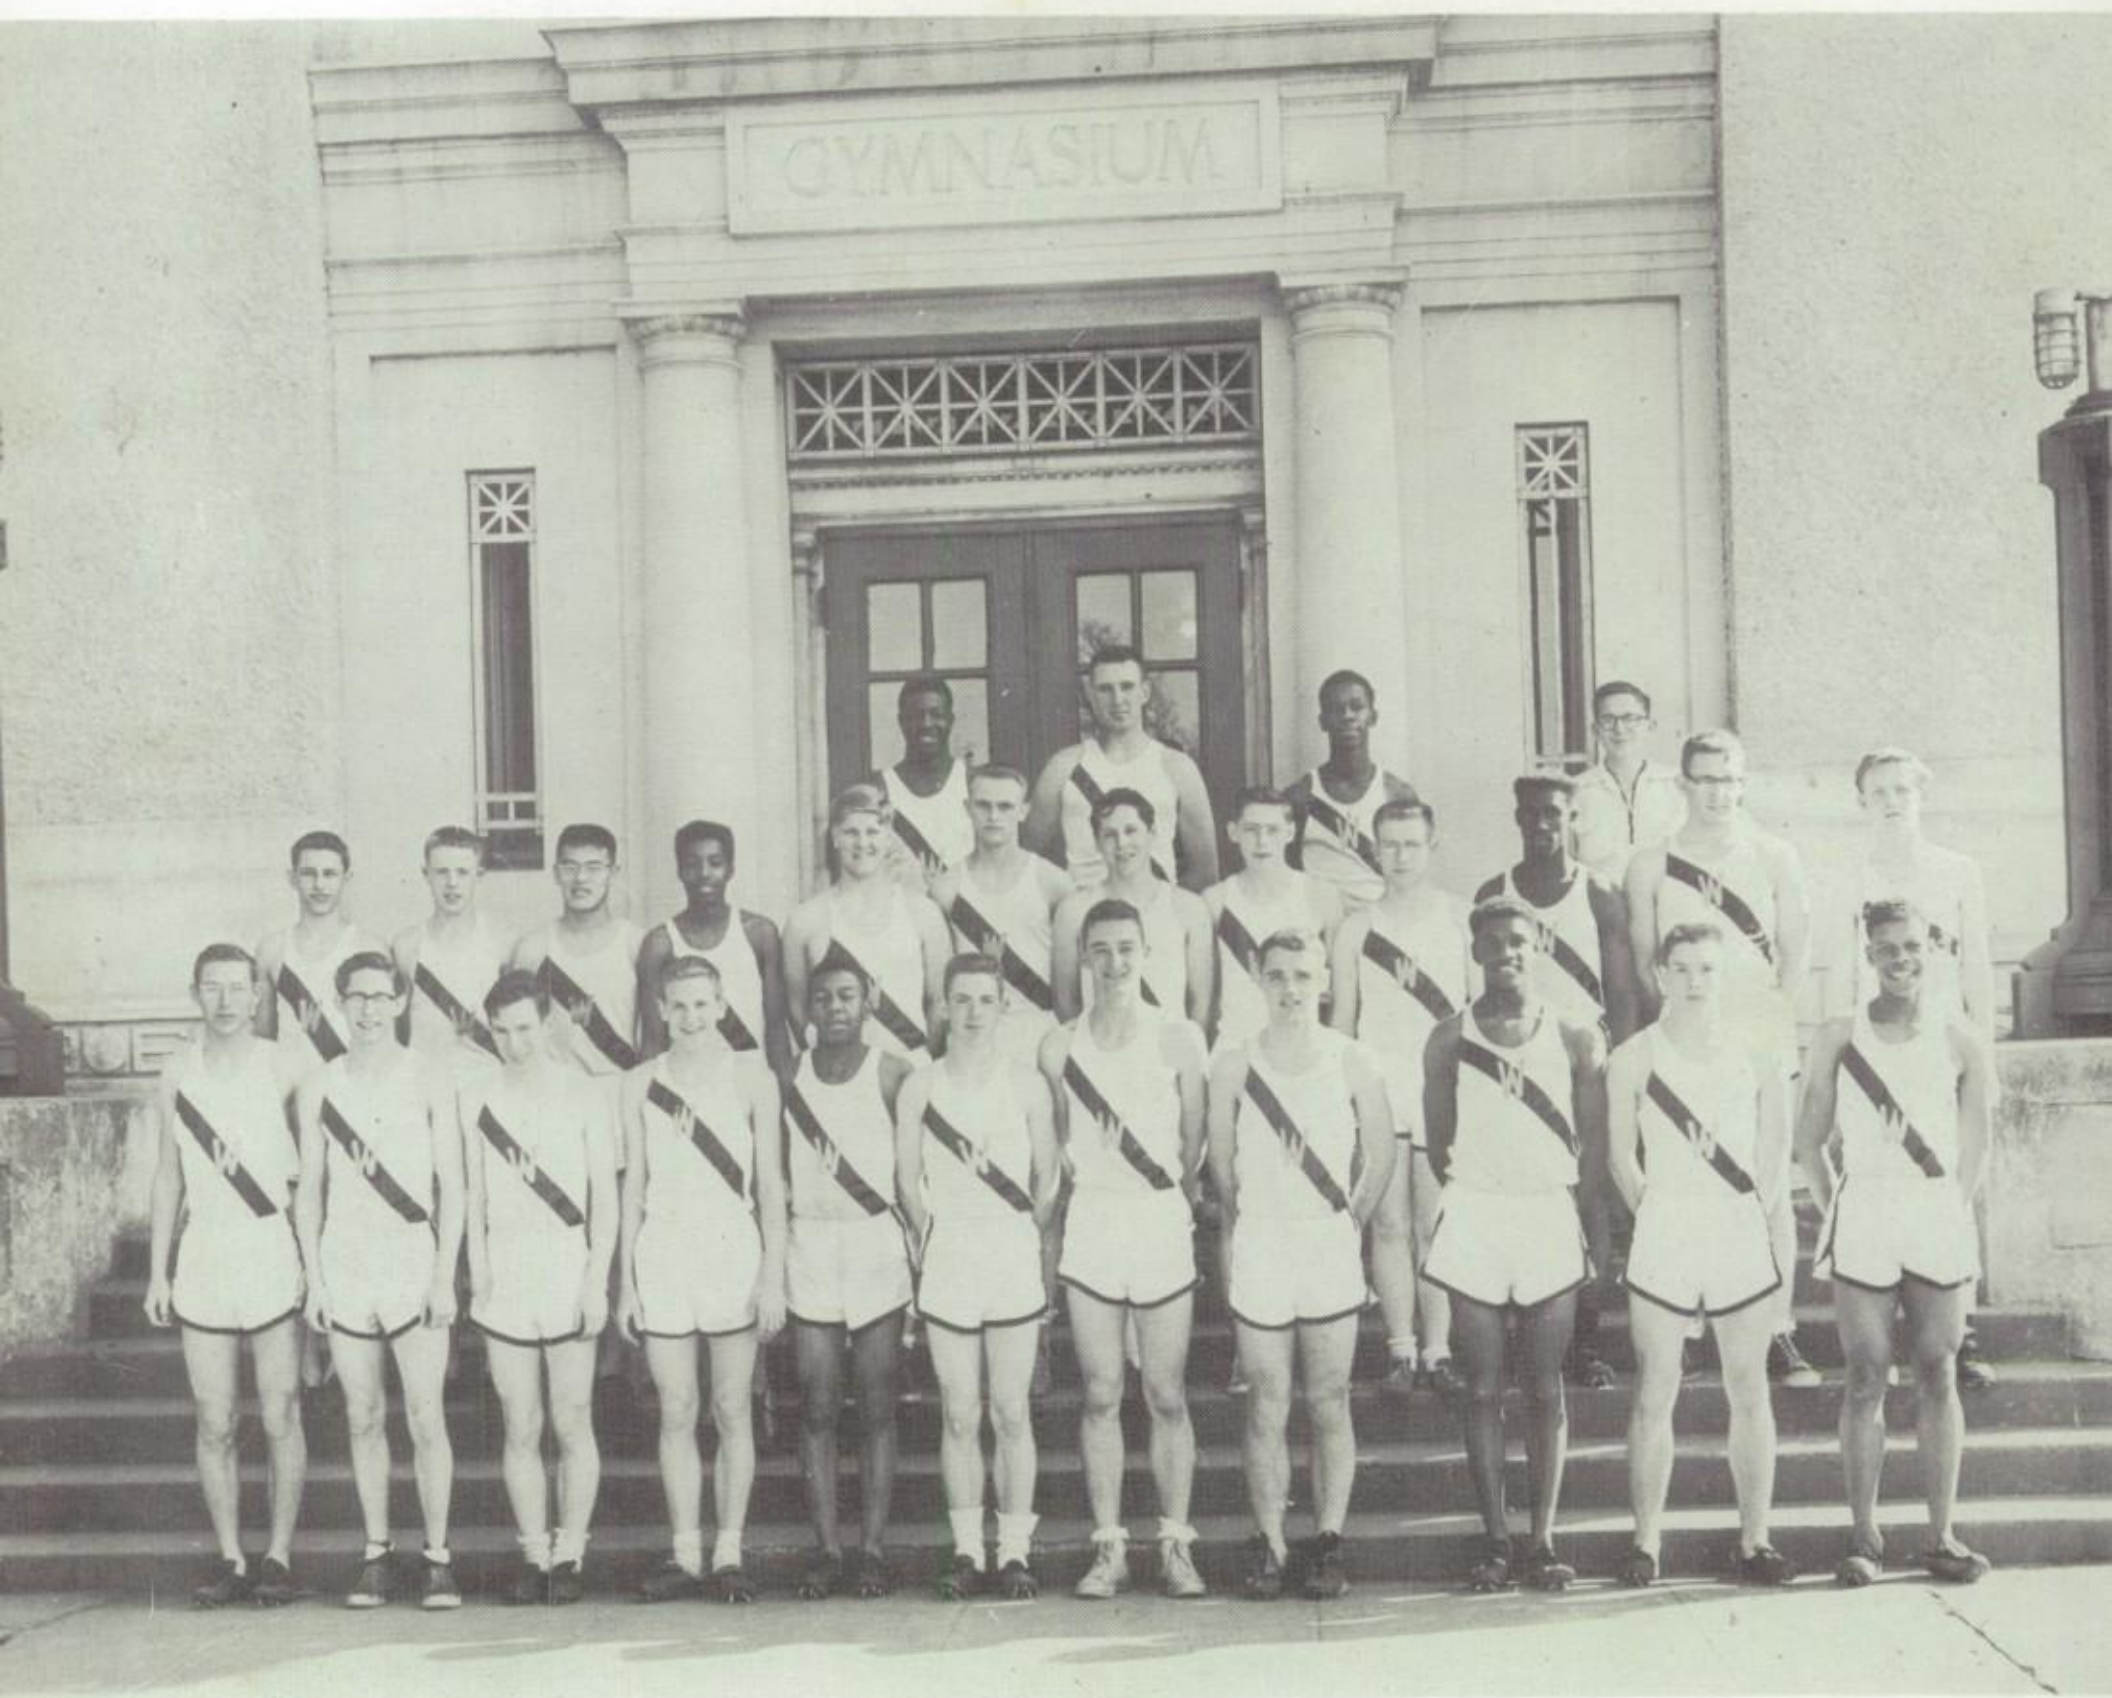

Due to an early publication date, the campaign's outcome was not known at this time. If these first contests are any indication of Colonial diamond potentialities, they cannot be excluded from the championship contenders list.

Bob Jorgensen, three year letterman, awaits next pitch with hopes of knocking it out of the park.

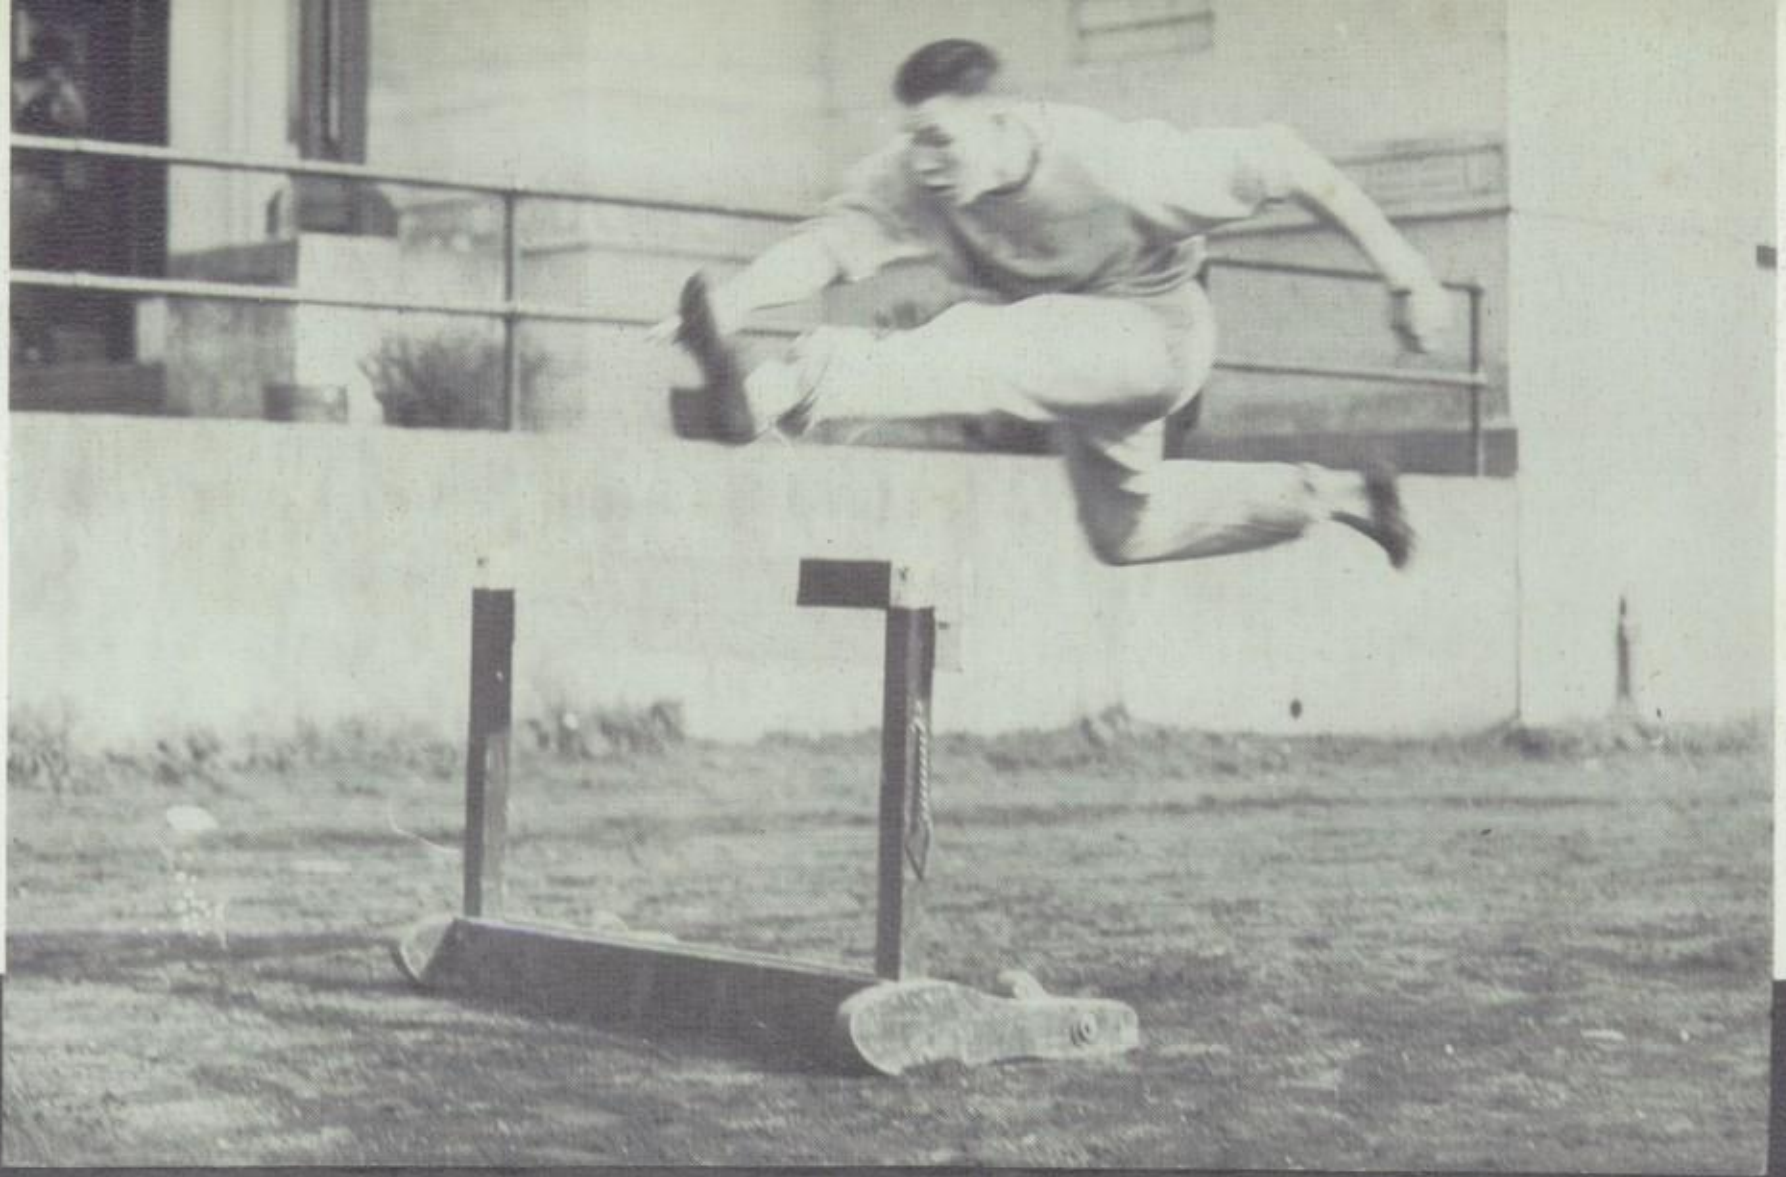

TRACK

Greeted by an exceptionally large turnout, veteran cinder mentor and athletic director, Gerald Exley, proceeded to create a capable cinder squad.

Mainly because a majority of the Colonial thinclads lacked experience, they did not compile an excessive amount of points in their first meets. After they gain confidence, however, they are expected to come through in much brighter fashion.

John Carpenter, a senior stalwart, shows good form as he strides over hurdle.

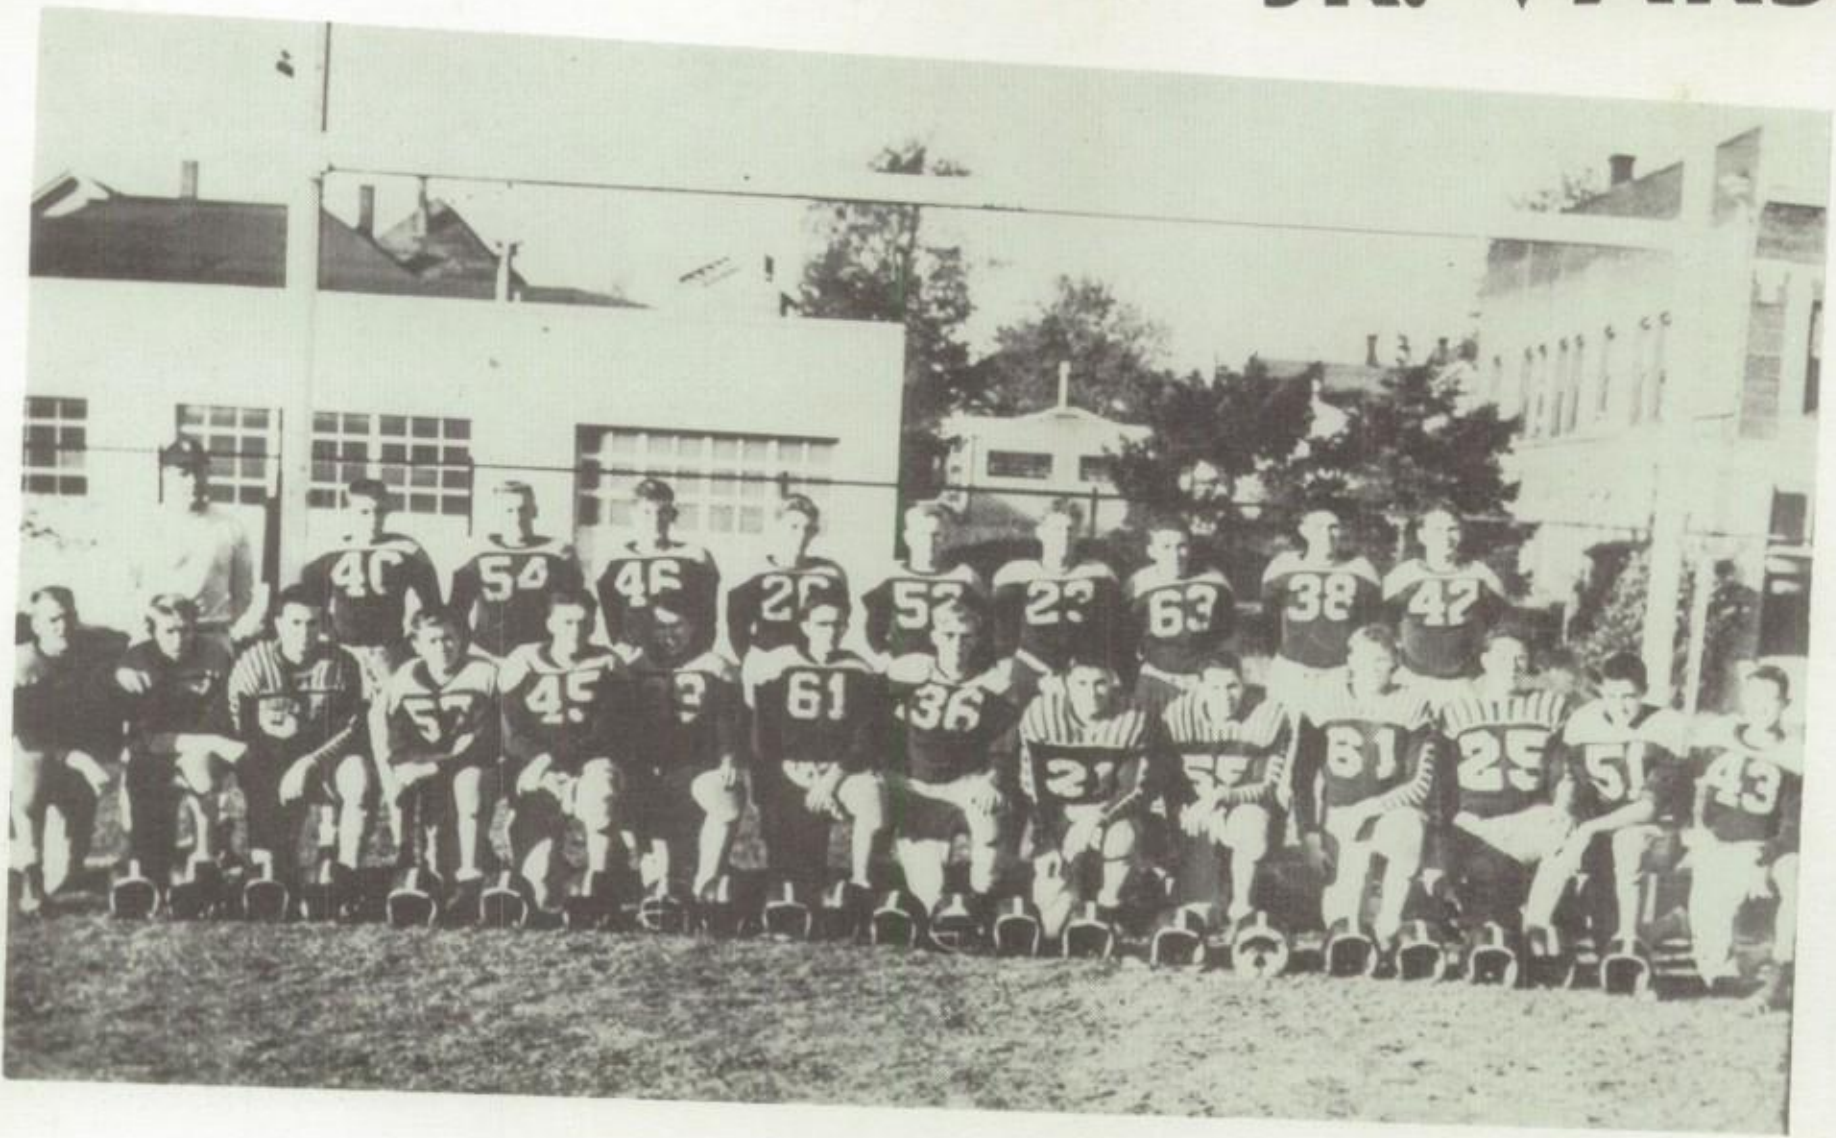

Armand Martinotti, veteran senior high jumper, clears bar during practice session.
